THE GOLDEN RULE FOR AI SHOTS

Anywhere we'll add people or props with Higgsfield, film it three ways:

1. Clean plate: 10–15 seconds of the empty space, tripod locked, nobody walking through.
2. Stand-in take: the same framing with a team member doing the action. Genjutsu swaps what's already in the shot, so it needs something to swap.
3. Moving version: a slow gimbal push-in of the empty space (for the Seedance / Kling video-edit models).

Then take reference photos of every person and prop: front, side and back.

Camera settings

- [ ] Vertical 9:16, 4K, 25fps (UK standard)
- [ ] Slow motion: 50fps indoors (avoids light flicker on UK 50Hz mains)
- [ ] Shutter 1/50 at 25fps, 1/100 at 50fps
- [ ] Lock exposure, focus and white balance for every tripod shot
- [ ] Second camera (if you have one): horizontal 16:9 for YouTube and the website

Sound

- [ ] Lav mic on whoever is speaking
- [ ] Phone as a backup recorder
- [ ] 30 seconds of room tone in every location
- [ ] Clap at the start of each take if using two cameras
- [ ] Phones on silent; aircon off for ASMR

GDPR sweep (every location)

- [ ] No client files, names or figures in shot
- [ ] Screens off or showing dummy data
- [ ] Whiteboards wiped; post and visitor book hidden
- [ ] Fake or blank receipts only

Permissions

- [ ] Release form from everyone filmed, staff included
- [ ] Consent for AI use of their likeness (07, 14)
- [ ] Client consent before any real client appears
- [ ] Building/landlord OK; stall-holders at the market
- [ ] No children in public shots

WARDROBE

Black, white, cream and gold tones. Solid colours only, with no small checks, stripes or logos (they flicker in AI). Bring one smart look and one "character" look each.

Script Pages

Lines are written to be said naturally; rephrase in your own words if it feels stiff. Every tax line should be checked by a qualified team member before posting.

01 Door to Every Business: welcome line

"Morning! Come on in."

"Welcome to RKN. Tea or coffee?"

02 Shoebox Exorcism

Client: "It's all in there."

Accountant (after the snap): "Filed. Before the thirty-first."

04 Budget Day in 60 Seconds (template)

Intro (one per audience: self-employed / landlord / employer / family):

"The Budget's just been announced. Here's what it means for you if you're [self-employed]. Three things, sixty seconds."

Outro:

"That's the Budget in sixty seconds. Got a question? Drop it in the comments and we'll answer it in a video. RKN: not your everyday accountant."

On Budget day (Wed 28 Oct), record only the 3 points, after a qualified team member has checked them against the official documents.

05 Accountant Reacts

"Absolutely not."

"Please, please don't do this."

"Here's the truth in fifteen seconds..."

"HMRC risk level: three flames."

"That one's actually true. Fact!"

"My superpower? I can spot a missed expense from ten metres away."

"My kryptonite? "I'll send the receipts tomorrow.""

"My favourite thing about Bury is..."

"My most-used Excel shortcut is..."

10 Creator tax tips

"If a brand sends you free stuff to promote, HMRC can treat it as income."

"There's a thousand-pound trading allowance. Earn more than that from content and you'll likely need to tell HMRC."

"Keep records of everything: every platform, every payment, every gift."

11 Spotlight opener

"Every week we're spotlighting a Bury business. Nominate one in the comments. Let's go!"

12 Trailer narration (record now or add later)

"In a town... where receipts go missing... and deadlines never sleep... one team... stands between you... and HMRC penalties."

"This January... RKN. Not your everyday accountant. Coming to a deadline near you."
